

Willie Anthony Burrell

April 29, 1948 - August 12, 2020

Legacy of Love

Willie Anthony Burrell, of Richmond, Virginia entered into eternal rest August 12, 2020. He was born on April 29, 1948, to Pearl Lee Burrell and the late Rufus Burrell, Jr.

He attended Armstrong High School in Richmond, Virginia. He confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at 31st Street Baptist Church.

Willie enlisted and served in the United States Marine Corps and received an honorable discharge. He retired from Henrico County as a Custodial Supervisor.

Willie lived a life of good deeds. He was a loving son, a loving husband, loving daddy, granddaddy, great granddaddy, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and a great friend to many.

He kept a smiling face. He will forever be etched in the memory of family and friends.

Willie leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted and loving wife of 36 years, Cynthia M. Burrell; four daughters, Michelle Burrell Thompson, Sharon,

Tammy and Tamika Burrell; a loving mother, Pearl Lee Burrell; seven grandchildren, Briana Thompson, Chandra Burrell, Tanesha Walker, Kenya Morris, Giselle Morton, Jeremy and Jacob Pleasants; one great-grandchild, Hailey Luna; ; two brothers, Lloyd (Maria), Thomas (Nadine) Burrell; a loving sister, L. Diane Burrell; host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends, Issac Kelly Jr., Doug White and Joe Pleasants.
