January 25, 1944 - January 13, 2010

Today we need to just be still and let God love us. Today we need to know God's love is our light in the midst of darkness. Today we need to know God's love is our strength. Today we need to know that God's love is the fulfillment of every hunger, and every thirst. Today we need to know that God's love is our source and supply. Today we need to know God's love and presence is the only thing we need or desire. Today we need to know the circumstance of this day is eternal life with our Lord and Savior. For it is on this day we put it all in God's hands.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolence for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). May these words bring you a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##
