

Willie Evans

December 12, 1942 - March 29, 2024

On Friday, March 29, 2024, Willie Evans transitioned from this life. Willie, best known as “Popeye”, was born February 12, 1942, in Palmyra, North Carolina to the late Inez Spivey and Clarence Evans, Sr.

Willie and his six siblings, spent their formative years growing up in Palmyra, NC. The family settled in Scotland Neck, NC where he attended Brawley High School. He decided to pursue employment and moved to Virginia Beach, VA where he worked in restaurants.

He later moved to New York City and eventually settled in Baltimore, MD where he met his wife, Vivian. They made their home in East Baltimore where the neighbors affectionally called him Mr. Willie. He was known for cutting grass around the neighborhood and helping his neighbors with various chores. He worked many years for Bethlehem Steel at the Fells Point shipyard and retired from his job as a Painter.

He was proceeded in death by his wife Vivian Lee Evans, his siblings Loula Mae Lewis, James Evans, Mildred Evans and Clarence Evans Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory: Mattie Jones, his daughter; Lee Curtis Ruffin, his son; Curtis Evans, his brother; Bernice Evans, his sister and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
