

Willie Foster

December 19, 1934 - December 15, 2020

The earthly physical journey for BROTHER WILLIE JAMES FOSTER, SR. began on December 19, 1934 in Chester South Carolina and his transition to glory began December 15, 2020 in hospice care at Future Care Rehabilitation Center in Baltimore, Maryland.

Willie was the son of the late Joe Foster, Jr. and Hattie Mae Woodard. He attended Pleasant View Zion Church in Fairfield, South Carolina and was educated in the Chester public schools.

On June 6, 1959 Willie married Martha Lee James. From this union a son, Willie James Foster, Jr. was born.

For most of his adult life Willie worked at Bethlehem Steel as a laborer and retired in 1997.

Willie was a faithful member of Southern Baptist Church where he served on the Senior Usher Board.

Willie was a very extensive lover of Motown music, having collected a large number of CD's over the years. He was very meticulous about his personal appearance and loved being out with his buddies.

Willie leaves behind his wife of 62 years Martha Lee Foster; son, Willie James Foster, Jr; grandson, Noland Foster; six sister's, Martha Heath of Newark, New Jersey, Mary Strong of South Carolina, Rosie Young(Eddie) of Baltimore, Marguerite Surles (Gene) of Baltimore, Tammy Woodard of South Carolina and Arlene Brice; sisters -in-law, Elaine Williams (Frank) and Joyce James; brother -in-law, Donald James; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
