

Willie Fraulien Patrick

December 5, 1927 - June 8, 2006

WILLIE FRAULIEN PANNELL PATRICK arrived in this world on December 5, 1927 the youngest child of six to the late Bessie Jane (Holland) and James Edward Pannell in Roanoke, Virginia. On June 8, 2006 God called her home to her eternal rest. Fraulien was a product of the Roanoke City Public Schools. By the age of eleven she could keep house as well as any adult. She met and married the late John M. Patrick; from this union they had two daughters Sharon and Marcia. In 1954 they moved the entire family to Baltimore, Maryland. Mom had many nicknames "Frau," Ms. Pat, but Mom-Mom was her favorite. Along with her husband she loved to entertain family and friends at her Braddish Ave. home. She could put together a feast in matter of minutes. Her famous corn pudding recipe is still in the family. Mom loved to travel, and cover North America from Canada to Mexico, Martha's Vineyard to Florida, California and many places in between as well as cruises to Bermuda, Bahamas, and Jamaica. In 1959 along with her two daughters she joined Mt. Ararat Baptist Church and was baptized by the late Pastor Samuel B. Redd. As she began her Christian journey she joined the Willing Workers. Under the leadership of Rev. Charles E. Coger. She became a member of several ministries, Female Ushers, Outreach Ministry, and the Triple "L" Ministry. Pastor Coger appointed her to head up the Outreach Ministry, which was a labor of love for her, and got her whole family involved. In 1990 after twenty-eight years of service she retired from ARA Food Service. She served God and her Church until her illness. Fraulien leaves to cherish her memory: her much-loved daughters, Sharon D. Ray, Marcia R. (Michael) Robinson; one brother, Arthur J. (Josephine) Pannell; three sisters-in-law, Doris Pannell, Lee Esther Crouch and Vera Kendrick; two brothers-in-law, Dan B. Patrick and Bertram Patrick; two grandsons, Bryon P. Gray and Eric D. Lane; one granddaughter, Andrea M. Lane; great-grandchildren, Bryon Jr., Devon, Vincent, Carlisha, and Rynaesha; nieces, Berena Paschal, Enga Archer and Allyson Pannell; one nephew, Garland Pannell; a host of other relatives, goddaughter, Geneen Pryor-Elder; caregiver, Ms. Mozelle Holly; and best friend, Janice Williams; her sisters in Christ, Deaconess Anna Barber and Deaconess Rovena Middleton; and the entire Mt. Ararat church family. Her beloved son-in-law, the late Rev. Melvin L. Ray Jr., preceded her in death.

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. May you derive comfort from God's word that he will remove our enemy death at 1 Cor. 15:26. We are also comforted at Isa. 26:19 which says, "Your dead ones will live ... they will rise up."##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
