

Willie Green

January 1, 1931 - March 8, 2021

Willie Warren Green, Sr., (affectionately know as Uncle Sunny, Sunny Boy, Horse and most lovingly by his wife – Hun) was born January 1, 1930 in Florence, South Carolina to the late Robert Green, Sr. and Curry Carr. He attended grade school in Florence, South Carolina. In the late 1940's Willie moved to New York City in hopes of becoming a boxer, but after one good hit he realized boxing was not for him.

In 1952 after hearing about a beautiful young lady in Baltimore Willie made the short trip south to meet her. One month later Willie and Margaret were married from their union seven were children . He retired from Baltimore Brick Company after many years of service.

Willie was preceded in death by his wife Margaret, two sisters: Sue Beasley and Mattie Williams, and one brother. John Green

After Margaret passed, Willie honored the Lord Jesus and the memory of his wife by serving as an usher at the Saint Paul Baptist in East Baltimore.

Willie leaves to cherish his memories: one sister Curry Huggins (late Ozikie Huggins). one brother Robert Green, Jr. (Jacqueline Green) seven children: Demetius Franklin, Willie Green, Jr., Glen Green, Yvonne Thomas, Terence Green, Marilyn Shuler and Tyrone Green, twenty one grandchildren, twenty eight

great grandchildren and one great-great. Grand; a host of nieces, nephews and relatives and friends.
