“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ To the Hill Family We cannot know what lies ahead from day to day.What changes God is planning in His wise and loving way. We cannot know the reasons He allows both joy and tears. Why must we lose the precious ones we have cherished through the years? We cannot know,but we can trust, and faith can help us find our way to those tomorrows that will bring us peace of mind. Remember, God is always there to help and comfort you, and remember, you have friends who care and want to see you through your sorrow. We love YOU, Diane Davis- Lewis,Tina Davis- Sewell, Billy Edwards Jr. and Mary Davis-Edwards##imported-begin##Mary Davis-Edwards##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible's promise at Job 14:14,15 "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? ... I shall wait until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." This promise from God reassures us that one day we will be able to welcome our loved ones from the grave to a peaceful earth. I hope this message proves to be comforting to you.##imported-begin##sharon hill##imported-end##
