

Willie G. Hollimon Jr.

August 10, 1932 - January 4, 2020

WILLIE GEORGE HOLLIMON, JR. was born on August 10, 1932 to Willie and Marie Hollimon (predeceased in death). He was raised in Georgia with his brother James (predeceased in death) until age 15, when the family migrated to Baltimore, Maryland.

He completed his education in Baltimore and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. Willie was drafted in the United States Army in 1953 where he spent time in Korea. Upon returning home from the military, he obtained his CDL License and began a diligent career as a Truck Driver. He retired from this field and continued to work various jobs. He enjoyed his career and traveled to many places.

Willie loved to spend time with family and friends. He mostly loved Football and Baseball and was a Horse Racing enthusiast. He was always rooting for the Baltimore Ravens, Atlanta Braves and Edgar Prado (favorite jockey). You could find him at Laurel Race Track on any given Saturday chuckling with friends. He and his son, Michael, shared many Ravens games together joyfully.

Willie married Charlotte Lann and to that union one child was born, Michael Hollimon. He then married Roberta Dorsey. In later years, he also married Carloyn Denise and settled in Catonsville, Maryland. Willie and Denise shared many family gatherings and laughter. They both shared a great love for music and attended many concerts and events, in particular, the Jazz genre. Willie made many friends and had an infectious laugh. He had a genuine love for life.

Willie accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior. He was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland where he enjoyed the services and fellowship there. His mother, Marie, was also a member of Macedonia and the two of them would often attend service together. Willie had an unwavering devotion to his mother. Prior to her death, he cheerfully was her caretaker for many years, visiting her daily in the Nursing Home.

Willie G. Hollimon, Jr. departed this life suddenly on January 4, 2020.

He leaves to reflect upon his days of joy and laughter his wife C. Denise; son, Michael Hollimon (Sharon); three grandchildren, Justin Hollimon, Esq. (Durriyyah), Miles and Vanesa. He also leaves his step-daughter, Monica Gregory and two step-grandsons, Trenton and Jace; brother-in-law, E. Michael Brice and two sister in laws, Gale Fleming (Marc) and Brenda Brice. He has several family members in Georgia that will miss him as well.
