

Willie Herbert "Boobie" Hughes Jr.

May 7, 1962 - April 19, 2018

Willie H "Boobie" Hughes Jr, the third child of Willie Herbert Hughes Sr. and Louise Hughes was born on May 7, 1962. He quietly slipped into a coma on April 15, 2018 after falling and hitting his head and was taken off the ventilator on April 19, 2018.

He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later started working at Westside Cleaners. After realizing his passion he had for "Carpentry," he started working for United Medal Arms for approximately ten years. He had many funny stories to tell, when he returned home from work, to his sisters Sharyl, Carolyn and Glennette and Brother Steve.

After Years of Service at United Medals Arms "Boobie" started a new career with William N. Mason Inc. where he learned and fixed "Tractor Trailers". Boobie was a fun and loving guy. He loved watching Football, Basketball and Boxing. He always bet on Los Angeles Lakers whenever they played He was a Kobe Bryant Fan, until they lost the championship to San Antonio Spurs and he never liked the Lakers ever again, because he said Kobe was a "Bum" because he had to pay up to his father.

Uncle "Boobie" loved his family. He leaves behind a God Daughter name Keosha, who he loved and Son "Lor Boobie". Uncle Boobie wanted to be remembered as an "OG" from Baltimore and Catherine. He always found his way to visit the neighborhood to go see childhood friends. His childhood friends loved having him around and could hear his voice from a mile, yelling out the window, as the car drove by. When he seen one of his friends he always greeted them with a hug and a smile. The women of his dreams to marry is Ms. Freda and Ms. Tootsie he always brag how one day he would marry one of them.

Uncle "Boobie" leaves behind several nieces and nephews who loved him greatly. It don't matter "how much change he asked for", they always had it for him. Uncle Boobie will always be remembered as a "West Baltimore Legend". If you heard anything someone said negative about "Uncle Boobie" they aint get the opportunity to know Uncle "Boobie" how his (Nephew) Try and (Niece) Sharnett remembered him. "Boobie" will be with all of us in spirit.
