“ I remember when your mom brought you home from the hospital after you were born. My mom kissed you on the head and made a red lipstick stain on your scalp. It was very hard to get off that Fashion Fair Lipstick of hers. LOL. Well Little cousin, you will be missed very much. Goin to miss playin Spades and Phase 10 at the next Family Cookout with you, but I know you will be there watching over us. You always would text me every now and then just to see how I was doin. I will continue to pray for you and our family in this time. Although u were taken so soon from us, we have to cherish all the good times we had with you. And this was just one of my Best Memories

I Love You Lil Willie

“ Willie was like my son. He would visit my home couple times per week. So much I could say about this young man.. He was truly a gift to many of us. His son who is my adorable grand baby and his girlfriend who I call my daughter are all precious. He was my daughter's big brother and I hurt so much for them. I smile because a week ago I yelled at him for wearing his shoes in my house. He looked at me and said.. " Ma, my shoes are clean" awww smiles but tears at the same time. I love you my son and I will always keep you in my heart. I will always be here for your son.

My heart goes out to this mom, sister and the rest of the birth family.

“ I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Willie, but I'm sure he was a wonderful person and will be missed by his family and friends. Losing a loved one is so heartbreaking, and I can truly identify with your pain, because I have lost loved ones too, and it is so very hard to deal with. I send you my deepest sympathy. One day soon, the sting of death will be a thing of the past, because God has promised that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. The sure hope for the dead is also highlighted in the Bible, because the book of John lets us know that the dead will one day hear Jesus's voice, and they will come out of the memorial tombs to life everlasting in peaceful conditions. (John 5:28,29). I hope those scriptures bring you a measure of peace and comfort, and help you to just take one day at a time until you see the dear face of your Willie once again. Once again, much sympathy to the family

“ We didn't hve as much time on this earth as i wanted us too but im just glad i got the chance to be apart of your life....i remember when we went to go get your truck me,you, and moms had so much fun that day,both of us talking about how we was going to look in our new cars, i never did get mines that day but i was just happy you got something you wanted.I remember you took forever and a day to come back from dropping the car off cuz you said the man was driving like an old lady lls. But you didnt care cuz you just wanted to mak sure you had a good size car so that the carseat could fit in the back for your babyboy.You were a great young man and a great friend. I know i might have got on your nerves sometimes but you got on mines too{what are friends for anyways lol}
I how vayah would call your name when you were at work and be mad and get loud if you didnt hear her lol. But i remember the last time i saw you, you had came over to see me and moms. I was suppose to cook for yall that night smh i should have. We said i was going to cook for you the next time...so i guess when God calls me home its my turn to cook huh ;). the last hug we gave each other was something ill hold on to forever. I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND A DAY SEE YOU WHEN MY TIME COMES <3
.....MY CONDOENCES TO THE FAMILY I LOVE YOU ALL!!!

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. So sorry for your loss!! It is human and natural to grieve and we should not feel ashamed to let our grief be manifest. We have something to look forward to, that is the hope of the resurrection. While on earth Jesus was empowered to resurrect the dead. (John 5:21) Very soon he will do it again. Under Jesus' Kingdom rule there will be “a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) In time those who are resurrected will receive divine education and have the prospect of everlasting life on earth.—John 5:28,29.
Yes, the death of a loved one can cause much distress and sorrow which may last for years, but viewing the dead from God's standpoint can bring us great comfort and fill us with hope.—2 Corinthians 1:34. Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us @ Ecclesiastes 3:11-Even time indefinite he has put in their heart.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

I would like to take the opportunity to express my deep heartfelt sorrow for my family's lost. A young life taken way to soon. We must remember that God has all power in his hands and with prayers and trust, we can overcome. We must get our houses in order and welcome God with open arms. Today is not promised and tomorrow is still in wonder, but knowing and having a relationship with God is definite, for one day we all will be going home with God. Little Willie was a handsome young man and the family will indeed miss him. To his mom, ""Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted" Mathew 5:4
