“ In memory of my Cousin Bill, who truly cared about family. I remember the days when Cousin Bill drove to the “country” to see his “Aunt Sue Mae with all those children”. Often, he would bring along his Aunts, Uncles, Cousin Mary Sue, or nieces on his many trips. As far as I can remember, he always drove a black Cadillac, which he kept immaculately clean. It did not matter whether his visits were impromptu (the best kind), to attend family gatherings, church homecomings, or to clean the gravesites of Grandpa Emmett and Grandma Emily Jones. You could always depend on him to be there if he said he would. Cousin Bill was always honest about who he was as a person; did not shy away from sharing his opinions; was a lively conversationalist; had a great sense of humor and was “side-cracking” funny; and sometimes would push information-sharing discussions to a level that made you either cringe, blush, or laugh because he left you speechless. I will always have very fond memories of my Cousin Bill, appreciate him for all that he did with and for the Jones Family, and for who he was as a man. I love and will miss him dearly.

In loving memory of my dear cousin Bill, a man who in my opinion was a wonderful supporter of The Jones Family. Bill was the kind of man who when he wanted to see his Aunt Sue Mae, he would just show up sometimes by himself and sometimes with his side kick Our late Uncle James, I remember one of Bill's favorite saying Great Dang!. Bill was very funny and kept you laughing as all the Jones did even the Women. I am Blessed to have had cousin Bill in my life even though he was more like an Uncle. Bill was tall, dark, handsome, well dressed and Loved his Cadillac and kept his cars like himself CLEAN TO THE T. There was a song out in the day called DON'T MESS WITH BILL and every time I heard it I thought about my cousin Bill. I will miss him dearly and his memory will forever remind in my Heart. Rest In Peace Bill. Love Cousin Pearlene, The one he said gonna have a lot of children like Aunt Sue Mae but didnt Praise the Lord! Lol!
