

Willie L. Jackson

December 21, 1929 - March 14, 2007

Willie Lewis Jackson, youngest son of the late William L. and Ollie M. Jackson, was born on December 21, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Wednesday, March 14, 2007, he departed this earthly life after a brief illness. Willie received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. During his early adulthood, Willie enlisted in the Marine Corps where he served during the Korean Conflict. After his service in the Marine Corps, Willie received an Honorable Discharge for his dedicated service. He leaves to cherish his loving memory: two sisters, Annie Ruth Strickland-Thomas and Willa M. Hawkins; two brothers-in-law, James Thomas Sr. and Arther B. Hawkins Jr.; six nieces, Patricia A. Hamlin, Darlene Strickland-White, Wanda J. Maynor, Janice C. Doggett, Nancy Carter and Andrea C. Gaskins. He also leaves to mourn: nephew, Arthur B. Hawkins III and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. May it comfort your to know that one day your loved one will live again, and you will be able to see him again by means of the ressurection hope. The Aostle Paul spoke about this hope at Acts 24:15 which says, "And I have hope hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection. Also John 5:28,29 tells us, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May Jehovah God comfort you in your sorrow, and may the hope of being with Willie again strengthen your faith and help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Jackson's ! May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to u all. Losing a dear loved one in death breaks the family circle. The bible can help you in dealing with the lost of Mr. Willie. We were created to live forever , the bible tells us why we die at Romans 5:12. The future will be great for us as the bible say at Rev. 21:3-5, All things will be made NEW. I know the feeling of losing some one in death. I am looking forward to the future in seeing many of the dead being resurrected, as John 5:28 say great joy. May all the cherished memories of Mr. Willis stay close to your hearts. Sincerely. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
