“ My condolences to the Family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) The Bible also promises: "He will swallow up death forever, and the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ My condolences go to Willie's family. We met at Blood Lake Haunted House at a time when I had just moved to Virginia. I knew him as Willie-Bear a name that I dubbed upon him after witnessing his ability to scare/entertain folks and learning how kind he was. I was lucky enough to have hit it off with Willie, I admired him for always letting me know that he appreciated our friendship. He was a genuine man, I am forever grateful to him for all that he taught me on purpose and by accident just by being him. I will miss the way he brightened my day and strive to practice what I learned from him.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family of Willie Loving who i knew as Lil Billy. I was very shocked and sad to read of his passing. When i first met him he was just a teenager and watch him grow as i ran into him from time to time over the years to a fine young man. I am glad to have known him. My prayer go out to his family and friends. Frank Gayles

“ Even though I never grew up with any brothers, Willie definitely became one over the past 11 plus years. To not only work along such a great guy for a worthy cause, but to be able to have extended hangout time on planning committees, family events and boy the lunches. We had some of the best times at lunches when I was able to dine with him and Corey and share in the brotherhood, even though I couldn't handle the spicier meals. The smile and those affectionate words, "I love you Guys" as he constantly share with his work family, will be missed. To Joycee and their children, my prayers are with you. I Love you all and know that God will help you through.

“ Such a shock and such a young age. Willie, I will miss you. He was always a joy to be around and brought warm thoughts to each person he touched. My days at CCF were better because he was there and I knew him. He always had a nice word for me and for everyone he ever met. The world is not better off without him. May he rest in the arms of God and take his smile and kindest to heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with the family and many friends. I love you Willie.
