“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the McRae family. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear. Please be assured that "God cares for you" and promises to do away with our "enemy", death and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Peter 5:7, 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
