

Willie Mae Quattlebaum

October 29, 1926 - December 7, 2018

Willie Mae Quattlebaum was born Willie Mae Haynes to the late James and Rosa Haynes, October 29, 1926 in Calhoun County, South Carolina. She grew up, met and married Nathaniel Quattlebaum and they had one daughter; Ellen Q. Hill. Willie Mae was also preceded in death by five brothers Herk, Eddie Louis, James, Samuel, and Joseph; one sister, Nora Haynes; four nephews whom she raised, Michael, Louis, James and David. After her husband's premature death, she relocated to Columbus, South Carolina and then to Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She eventually settled in Richmond, Virginia where she spent the rest of her adult life and the remainder of her days.

Although she worked as a dedicated employee at MCV as a Housekeeper until her retirement, her dedication to the Lord was priority in her life. She served as a choir member, and active participant with the Women's Fellowship Ministry, Senior Ministry Missionary Board, and Deaconess at Shiloh Baptist Church and New Beginnings Baptist Church. She recently became a member of New Bridge Baptist Church in Henrico, Virginia. Her love and strong devotion for Jesus Christ and all that it represents naturally made her a vessel to do his work. Over the years, she became a nurturing mother figure to so many who crossed her path and was always there to support others in need. She understood the meaning of service and for that God is pleased. She now rest in joyful peace and she has taken her rightful place in Heaven.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Ellen Q. Hill (Richard); grandson, Frederick L. Hill (Venita); two sisters, Virginia H. McKelvey of Orangeburg, South Carolina and Rosa Lee Utsey of Spartanburg, South Carolina; devoted nieces, Eula Haynes and Vivian Fields (Mike). In addition, she also has a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews; great grand nieces and great grand nephews, other cousins and close family and friends.

“ Sis Q & I were pretty tight. We picked greens together on several occasions. Sometimes just hangin out. I remember her saying to me. " Mamie we have to accept what God allows." Gonna miss calling her, since my move back to the West coast. Get your rest. See you in that Sweet by and by...Love you always..

“ To the family of Mrs Quaterbaum, she was a kind and gentle lady. Always flashing that million dollar smile. I still member her singing in the Senior Choir at Shiloh Baptist Church with my mom, Deaconess Mamie Terry. Now the two of them will be singing in the Heavenly Choir. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

“ Ms. Q was a sweet and loving person and she will be missed dearly... she always had a smile for me and if I needed her to sew something she would do it, she was one of the mothers of Shiloh Baptist Church and we loved her a lot... rest in peace Ms. Q, you will forever be in our hearts.
