

Bishop Willie Royal Scott, Sr.

September 17, 1937 - January 5, 2015

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept my faith. II Timothy 4:7

On January 5, 2015, Bishop Willie Royal Scott, Sr., husband, father, grandfather, step-father, brother and friend reached the triumphant end of his earthly journey and joined God's heavenly caravan.

He was born September 17, 1937 in Cumberland County, Virginia. To the union of Lucy James and Elwood Scott, who preceded him in death along with his siblings, Sister Marilyn Marshall, brother Elwood Scott and his first wife Norma Lee Streeter-Scott.

Bishop Scott was educated in the Cumberland County School System and graduated from Luther P. Jackson High School in 1955. From there, he joined the U.S. Army and served honorably for four years. After his discharge, he attended Virginia State College (Virginia State University).

He was introduced to the late Evan. Sue I. Edwards (Mother Sue) in 1959 while working on an addition to the Church at 2129 Ford Avenue, Richmond, VA. Mother Sue introduced him to bible salvation. He accepted and was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ according to Acts 2:38.

Bishop Scott continued to be diligent working where ever and when ever he was needed with Mother Sue until her passing. After which he worked under Bishop Willie G. Suggs until he was called to South Hill, Virginia to assist Bishop Mary Chandler as her assistant Pastor. Under her leadership he rose through the ranks from Deacon, to Minister, to elder and on October 26, 2003 he was ordained bishop. He served faithfully with Pastor Chandler until her passing.

After returning home to Cumberland, Virginia he began working with Pastor Lillie Tyler at the New Jerusalem Sabbath Holy Church in Powhatan as Assistant Pastor and Pastor where he remained until his passing.

A hard worker and dedicated family man, his priorities were in order, God, Family and Church. He retired after many years from Reynolds Metals but continued working for several years at Hamilton Paper Company and Groome Transportation.

On July 22, 2003, he was united in marriage with Virginia B. Scott and they shares eleven loving years.

He leaves to share in his memory-a loving and devoted wife, Virginia Scott, 2 daughters, Sabrina Trimiew and Monique Scott, 6 sons, Willie Jr. (Shiela), Norman, Sr. Joseph (Constance), Darrell (Cynthia), Quinton, Sr. (Shirelle) and Atilla (Wanda) Scott, 9 stepchildren, 17 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, sister Clara Robinson, brother, Harold Scott and a host of relatives and friends.

*Missionary Virginia Scott, I remember one Sabbath Day after service standing in the aisle at Bishop Coleman's Church, when Bishop Willie Scott burst thru the doors and said:" I'M LOOKING FOR SISTER VIRGINIA BLEDSOE! I had a dream about her and I need to see her!!!" He did find you and the rest as they say is history. Many times you two worked as a team in encouraging The Saints, at The Ark Of Refuge Sabbath Apostolic Church to " hold on.." As I offer my well wishes to you in your husband's departure, may encourage you to: "hold on.." GOD loves you, your family loves you and GOD'S people love you. I'm asking GOD Almighty, Will You please encamp Your Angels of Mercy, Favor, Restoration and Protection around this Your daughter and her territory, in Jesus Name? ...Thank You, Lord.

*I too remember those days. The day he told me about his dream wife. Missionary Scott and my mother were friends. I still have their wedding invitation. But most of all, I remember Scott in rare form getting the Church straight. We are the Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Ground of Truth, as saints of God we shouldn't be acting like that he would say. In business be men! The Church should be run like a busy.

Correction: Bishop Scott would always say that in business men should be men. He believed that the Church should be run like a business. He felt that the Church was God's business. He also would remind us that there are four types of affairs - home affair, church affair, business affairs, and street affair, and warn us to know the difference. In other words, while in here if it's not of God then you need to leave that mess outside. In here we are going to do things in decency and in order.

Bishop Scott also believed that everybody was somebody. One of his favorite sayings was there is no big I's and little U's in the house of God's, for we are all one in Christ Jesus. He would then ask, "Is Christ divided?" When we said no; he would say neither should we. Bishop Scott also had his theory as to why there was always division among the ranks in the Church. He said, division is a result of us thinking more highly of ourselves than what we ought to be. Brethren this should not be. (LOL)

I will greatly miss him. He was not only my friend but also my Assistant Pastor when I was in South Hill. Like the Apostle Paul, he too was a good soldier and a defender of the faith. He will be greatly missed.

Scott, you may be gone but not forgotten. RIP
