“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful hope at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I met "Twyman", as we called him, in the spring of 1977, when I came to work at Bellwood, and we became fast friends. We had so much in common, but the main thing was that we spoke our minds, any place and to anyone, and we both talked loud.:-) We always stood out in a crowd. He was my buddy and even when I moved away from the area in 1985, we always kept in touch. I have MANY fond memories of Twyman, but one of the fondest was him catching the garter at my first wedding in 1986. I can remember it like yesterday; we cut up and my family fell in love with him. Well, he told me not to get married, and he was right. That marriage didn't last, but me and Twyman's friendship did. Another fond memory was when we took our kids to the $1 movie and almost got put out for laughing and talking. Twyman said we paid our $1 and we weren't going anywhere, until the movie was over, and guess what, we didn't. He could always make me laugh, just like I'm doing now, and I'm also crying, while sitting here reminicing. Most of my friends up here never met Twyman, but when I told them of his passing, it was like they knew him because I always talked about him. Twyman, I'm going to miss you. "Mother", as you would call her, said to tell you "she's sorry that you're no longer with us and she'll see you when she gets there".:-) ”

May God grant the family peace in their time of berevement.

Peace and Blessings,

*Mary Davis-Williams

“ Rukiya and family. Sorry to hear about the passing of your father. I met him when he was a foster father for Richmond DSS. I have plenty good memories sitting around his kitchen table enjoying the meals that he loved to prepare. I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Deborah Crockett Buford “ Rukiya and family, I was privileged to know your father over his last few months of life. My fondest memory is listening to him talk about his love for his children and grandchildren. Though he is gone from us on this earth, his memory will live on in each of the memories and touches of love he has left behind within each of us. May God comfort the family in this difficult time. “ Rukiya & family, the loss of a loved one is never easy but your dad can rest now, safely in Gods unchanging hands. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back on memories help comfort you tomorrow.

May you find peace and comfort in God's love
