

Willie Walker

April 4, 1932 - April 20, 2007

Willis Walker, son of the late Willis Walker, Sr. and Sarah Walker, was born on April 4, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 20, 2007, after a lengthy illness. He was briefly educated in the Baltimore City School System. At a very young age he took an odd job and most of his work life was in construction, home improvement and as a licensed peddler. He was a gifted man musically and spent over fifty years singing in several local gospel groups. In his last years, he became a member of Doorway Church of God. Willis made friends wherever he went. His jovial laughter, twinkling smile and witty jokes will be missed by all who knew him. He was a true friend and devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Coretta Walker; son, Curtis Roy Thompson; three stepdaughters, IBreeta Thompson, Jacqueline Tate and Lynette Racks; four stepsons, Mark Johnson, John Johnson, Norman Price, Raymond Price; two sisters, Lillian Murphy and Ezzie Walker; as well as, a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by: two sisters, Catharine Avery and Mary McNeal; and brother, Bishop James Lipscomb.

“ Dear family and friends of Willie. I am very sorry to hear about your lost of a loved one. Death is always such a hard thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when death, sickness, and pain are things of the past.(Rev 21:3-5) Jehovah God never wanted his people to experience death. At John 5:28,29 tell of a time when we will see our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A Jones##imported-end##

“ To family and friends: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It's at times like this that having people who care helps us to endure the pain that death brings. However, remembering that God cares can bring us even greater comfort. We are assured of His care at 1 Peter 5:7 which invites us to throw our anxiety upon God because He cares for us. He has shown that care in giving His son as a ransom in our behalf (John 3:16). Further, on the basis of that ransom, He will fulfill the resurrection promise found at John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##M Bedford##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I'm so sorry that you lost your dear one, Mr. Walker in death. Death is such a hard thing to bear, and it's so unfair that we have to go through this. This was never God's intentions for us, but he desires us all to attain repentance and live forever in peaceful surroundings. 2nd Petter 3,13 speaks of a new world that is sure to come, and Isaiah 25,8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever. One day, your loved one will open his eyes again by means of the ressurection as promised at Acts 24:15. Please find comfort and strength in his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
