

Willie Williams

July 22, 1922 - October 5, 2008

ELDER WILLIE WILLIAMS, son of the late Bradley and Sylvester Williams, was born on July 22, 1922, in Dillon, South Carolina. He departed this life on Sunday, October 5, 2008 after a lengthy illness. Elder Williams received his education in South Carolina. He met his future wife, Daisy Clavon, while in high school, and on June 14, 1941, he and his "sweetheart: were united in Holy Matrimony. Out of their union were born ten children three of which preceding him in death: Lillie Jones, Charles Williams, and baby boy Williams. In 1950, he and his wife moved form South Carolina to Baltimore, Maryland. In 1952 Elder Williams started working for Olin Mathison Chemical Company, where he worked until his retirement in 1988. In 1966, he and his wife joined New Unity Baptist Church, under the guidance of Elder Julian and Mrs. Willie Mae McNair. In 1972, Elder Williams heard, and accepted the Call of God, and was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel, by Elder Julian McNair. After the passing of Elder McNair, Reverend Jacob Wells became Pastor and Elder Williams became the Assistant Pastor of New Unity Baptist Church, where he devoted his life and ministry until his death. Elder Williams loved people, but all who knew him, knew that HE LOVED HIS CHURCH FAMILY. Wherever he went, he carried the Word of God and he lived by the Word of God. One of his favorite pastimes in life was fishing, but more than anything else, he loved reading the Word of God. Elder Williams truly loved his wife and his family, and was devoted to them. He was a humble, happy man, and just loved to make people laugh. He took his love for God seriously, and whenever he got a chance, he spread the Gospel, until his last day. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Daisy Williams; seven children, Willie Williams Jr., Mae W. Cross (John H.), Roberta Carter (Robert L.), Jonathan Williams, Reverend Phillip Williams (Verna), Raymond Williams (Claudette) and Maria Greenidge (Sherwyn); two sisters, Sallie Mae Thomas of Washington, D.C. and Amy Mae Shaw, of Lynchburg, South Carolina; twenty-three grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, two daughter-in-law, three sons-in-law, two grandsons-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Willie Williams

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Granddaddy, I love you and I never knew how hard this would be. You where my rock. Happy Birthday my Angel. Rest In Heaven my Love. You will always be my #1 & I will always be your pretty girl.

Tracie (pretty girl) - July 22, 2014 at 08:42 AM

“ Thank you my grandfather was a wonderful man. I was thinking of him so I put his name in and there goes his smile. I miss him and my grandma misses him more. I wish you was still here. But Allah makes no mistakes love you granddaddy always and forever.

maria lawrence - September 10, 2012 at 12:59 AM

“ May I extend my condolences to you all.Lossing a dear loved one really breaks the circle of life after 86 years,Ps.90:10.It will be wonderfull to live forever never worrying about pain and tears of sorrow and then die, Rev.21:3-5 We all long for better times, would you not agree. Our creator cares about you all, 1 Peter 5:7.May all the love Mr. Willie show for his family and friends help to support you all.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses, when you have a chance, and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM