

Willie Williams, Jr.

February 12, 1953 - June 7, 2016

Willie Williams, a great man of integrity and honor, was born to the late Willie Williams Senior and the late Verna Mae Brunson on February 12, 1953.

He graduated from Stanton Senior High School in Jacksonville, Florida on June 7, 1971. He joined the United States Air Force in June of 1971 and was honorably discharged June 1975. He then enlisted in the United States Army in June of 1975 serving two tours in Germany and stationed in numerous states.

In September of 1984 he met and fell in love with Cheryl Ann Hair while visiting in Baltimore, Maryland. They married March 24, 1985 and shared thirty-two wonderful years of marriage.

In July 1991 he retired after serving twenty years as a Staff Sergeant. He then began working as a contracted Security Officer at the Social Security Administration under MVM Inc. until his unexpected passing. Willie was a great cook and he enjoyed music. He was given many nicknames like "Pop", "Willy Wonka" and "Spare Rib" because he loved spare ribs.

He leaves behind to mourn: his wife, Cheryl; children, Andy, Lamont (Njaki), Brittany (Deano); nephew, Juwan (deceased) and Mark; grandchildren, Alarico, Moniet, Yefeh, Alex, Maximo, Phillipe, Kahlil, Joselito, Tyree, Amir Tamia, Talayah (deceased), Lariah, Trinity, Malaya; great-grandchild, Jahari; stepfather, John Brunson; siblings, Betty Ann, Yvonne, Queen, Cue (Wanda), Sharon (Aubrey), Chavella (Earl), Gregory, Johnetta; uncle and aunts, Julius (Johnnie), James (Eunatee), and Silvia; in-laws: James and Vernell Hair (deceased); Joyce, Charles, James, Michelle (Vincent), Keith (Annette), Keith (Cherise); special niece, Stephanie; and a host of family and friends.

“ My husband my love my friend. I love you with all my heart words cannot explain how I feel right now. I know that I feel empty inside the service was nice you would have enjoyed it we laughed we cried. I miss you so much I never thought you would leave me so soon I was looking forward to us growing old together, but now you are gone and never coming back I will cherish all the memories and the love we shared, God needed you more then me so rest in peace my love I will meet you in paradise one day.
