Willie Mae Withers, daughter of the late Jessie Reid and Mittie Jane Spencer, was born on March 30, 1917 in Youngstown, OH. She departed this life on January 31, 2016 of natural causes.

She received her education in Dothan, AL. She later moved to Baltimore, MD where she met and married the late Samuel Withers, and out of this union two children, Sheila and Edward were born.

She was more than just a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great grandmother, "Mama" which is what she was known to everyone as, was a great friend to many. Mama was the one that everyone could turn to for anything. If she had it, it was yours for the taking. She enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking, playing games and singing, which could be heard when you approached the house.

She leaves to mourn: daughter, Sheila Lowery; son, Edward Withers; son-in-law, Rickie Lowery; daughter-in-law, Jeanne Withers; four grandchildren, Greg Washington, Sheila Smith, Stacey Washington and Brenda Lowery; ten great-grandchildren, eleven great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
