

Williebell Brown

September 28, 1935 - August 29, 2003

WILLIEBELL BROWN, daughter of Theodore Satterfield and the late Mary Satterfield was born on September 28, 1935 in Rocksboro, North Carolina. She departed this life after a long illness on Tuesday, July 29, 2003. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She became employed at The Department of Defense for NSA. She retired after ten years of service. She was baptized at First Apostolic Faith Church of Christ at Caroline and Lombard Street and was a faithful and devoted member. In 1951, Williebell fell in love and married the late George M. Brown, Sr. (1996) and from this union nine children were born. She had numerous friends wherever she went. She was a devoted mother and loving grandmother. She loved to call her grandkids "sweetie." She leaves to mourn: her children, Anntinett Brown-Dorsey (son-in-law Charles), Germaine (daughter-in-law Andrea), Orrin, Duane, Natalie Moore (son-in-law Darrin), Garrett, Anton (daughter-in-law Keeba); her father Theodore Satterfield; her sister Clarice; three brothers-in-law and five sisters-in-law. She was preceded in death by her two children George Jr. and John, her two sisters Bernice and Pauline, and one brother Theodore Jr. She also leaves a host of other nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to cherish her memory.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
