

Willimena Trim

June 16, 1918 - January 19, 2012

WILLIMENA TRIM, was born on June 16, 1918 in Los Bajos, Trinidad, West Indies. She was the daughter of Brennette Trim-Alexander and Farrell Barkley. On January 19, 2012, after a short illness, Willimena was called home to be with the Lord.

“Mena,” as she was affectionately known to family and close friends, worked for several years at Elite Shirt Factory as a Seamstress.

After joining her daughter in the United States from Venezuela, Mena found enjoyment in sewing, traveling and she loved to go to church. Mena was an active and dedicated member of Our Lady of Lord Catholic Church and then St. Ambrose Catholic Church. In Mena’s later years she loved to sing, dance, quoting verses from the Bible and enjoying good food and good food and good company. Mena will be forever loved and dearly missed by her family, friends and all who had pleasure of meeting and knowing her.

Willimena leaves to celebrate her life: daughter, Phyllis; grandson, Alfred; great-grandchildren, Lavontay, Joel and Jarrell; nieces, Mary, Sybil, Joyce and Molly; close friends, Francis, Iva, Agnes, Michael, Esther and Sylvia; personal caregiver and close friend, Ms Julia; and a host of other relatives and friends.
