

Willis Graham Jr.

March 13, 1960 - August 31, 2020

Willis Graham, son of the late Willis Graham Sr. and Catherine Graham was born in Washington, DC on March 13, 1960. He departed life suddenly on Monday, August 31, 2020. He was educated through the Baltimore City Public School system. Willis was affectionately known by the nick name Stink. To know him was to truly love him. He touched the hearts of all that knew him creating an extended family of brothers, sisters, and cousins along the way. Stink brightened many days for those in his path with his beautiful spirit; events were always made better when he blessed us with his soulful voice bringing the classics back to life. It is not often that we come across a person genuinely full of so much affection and happiness, but that sentiment rang true for the wonderful man we all loved.

Even the smallest interaction with him would put a smile on your face; a quick 2-minute phone call, a car ride home, stopping passed Mo's, seeing him randomly somewhere in the city, he was full of life. He perfected his love and craft for cooking for over 20 years years at Mo's Seafood. When he brought that seafood salad to a gathering there was never a noodle left. There may be no more new memories of him to come but the ones he has given us over the last 60 years will fuel our souls forever.

He is survived by stepfather Bernard Charles Hall; uncle Bert Graham his children Antonio McQuarters, Patricia, Tavon and Ashley Graham; siblings Clarence (Junie) Drummond, Belinda Drummond, Robert Graham, David

“ My deepest sympathies and condolences to the Graham family. Where do I start in reference to my homeboy, Willis AKA.Stink! For about three years straight Willis(Stink), Joe (Connie), and I hung tuff everyday of the week.Cracking jokes, ripping and running etc,. Basically just having pure clean fun. It was never a dull moment with us. I lived in the 2700 block of Edmondson Avenue, and Connie, Stink lived in the 2600 block of Edmondson Avenue, His brother Robert Graham was my buddy while we was in school at Calverton Junior High School. But we were three the hard way, or the three Amigos. We were thicker than thieves.When I got the news from Connie that Stink had past. I was devastated, and very sad. But as soon as I thought of all the good times we had, that sad frown turned into a very big smile, My tears quickly turned from sad tears to happy tears. I literally couldn't stop smiling and laughing.That's the kind of guy he was, happy go lucky. Actually we all were, pretty much the life of the party, one in the same. I am definitely going to miss you, buddy! May your soul rest until judgement day.Hopefully, and prayerfully we will meet again in that place called the New Jerusalem. Where all three of us will be able to hold hands while we are on our knees and worshiping God together. All with a big smile on our faces because we made it in. I love you brother! Your brother, friend,and homeboy. Minister, Kevin Williams!
