

Willis Jacobs

May 1, 1971 - December 24, 2009

WILLIS URELESTER JACOBS, son of Will Jacobs Jr. and Annie Pearl Jacobs, stepfather Thomas Woodrup, was born May 1, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland. He abruptly departed this life on December 24, 2009 in Las Vegas, Nevada. "Champ" as he was affectionately called by family and friends, received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System. As a Laborer with the Local #872 he continued his love for learning earning numerous certificates and accreditations. Charismatic, lovable, always living life to the fullest, Champ befriends people everywhere he went. He was witty, charming, and very intelligent. A street savvy, self motivated learner, with undeniable swagger!!! He loved his family dearly, and was especially proud of his children. Champ was endeared and devoted to Patricia, the love of his life. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and was baptized on June 16, 2005 at Antioch Memorial Baptist Church by the late Rev. E. Timothy Wright. He leaves to mourn: his spouse, Patricia; four daughters, Jasmine, Destiny, Shadarra and Jade; son, Donovan; his father, Will; mother, Annie Pearl; stepfather, Thomas; and sister, Buelnette (Tootsie); aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Willis Jacobs

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family and those who truly cared for this amazing man. You will always be loved and never forgotten.##imported-begin##Vanessa Martin##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I love u, my Brother from another Mother. I will not say good-bye,just c u later. Thank u for loving me, thank u for being a loyal friend.##imported-begin##Gail Daniels##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I miss you my brother,i can't believe that you are no longer here with me,i pray for you and your family every night i will truly miss you##imported-begin##Taura King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Our deepest sympathy for the lost of cousin Champ.Remember to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, and know we will truly see him again.##imported-begin##Darric and Tasha Shank##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Remember the a good times.##imported-begin##Lisa and James Cornish##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ you will be forever missed i love you##imported-begin##michael sivells##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I love you uncle Champ but you are in a better place now that you are not sick anymore. You are in the sky looking at me as an angel with Jesus. Watching out for me and Shae and your daughters and neices. When we come up there you will be waiting for us.##imported-begin##Taylor Ragland##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Losing a loved one in death is a very devastating thing. You have my deepest sympathy. This hurt and sorrow was never God's grand purpose for us. He desires everlasting life for all of his children. This is why he promises that one day, "No resident will say, "I am sick." Isaiah 33:24. As for the dead, Jesus, the beloved son has been entrusted with ressurecting the dead. At John 5:28,29 the bible says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life."May you be comforted by the ressurection hope as well as happier days spent with your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM