

Willis Rogers Foster

October 14, 1949 - August 8, 2008

Willis R. Foster, Son of the John Foster and Lenora Foster was born on October 14, 1949 in Cumberland, Virginia. He departed this life on August 8, 2008 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Cumberland County Public School system. Upon completion of his education, he was employed as a construction worker for 30 years before he retired. He was a member of Petersville Baptist Church in Buckingham, Virginia. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1968, where he met and married the former Valeria Brown. Out of this union, three children were born Roger, who preceded him in death, Royal and Valeria. Willis and Valeria were happily married for 31 years. They had a remarkable bond that allowed them to overcome many obstacles. Willis was devoted to his wife, children and grandchildren. Willis made numerous friends wherever he went. Everyone loved and admired him. He enjoyed fishing, repairing cars and listening to music. He also enjoyed cooking, dancing, and watching wrestling. He was extremely loving, very patient and a kind-hearted man that devoted his time helping others. God used Willis smile as a ray of light to bless others. Willis will be truly missed by his family and friends. He leaves to cherish: his wife Valeria, one son Royal, one daughter Valeria; four sisters: Juanita, Margret, Darlene and Valeria; one brothers-in-laws, 4 sisters-in-laws and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Words could not explain how helpful you were to me. My first car and ultimately the reason for me pushing to get my license. Wow, the conversations while driving along were some kind of special and I will never forget that. You helped me realize how important it is for someone to be able to depend on and I could always depend on you. I luv and will miss you unk. Your patience is something I will learn and you are one I will miss.##imported-begin##Shaneika##imported-end##
