

Willis E. Whitfield

February 9, 1939 - August 19, 2018

Willis Earl Whitfield was born on February 9, 1939 to the late Addie and Bryant Whitfield, Sr.

Fondly called “Lil Bud,” by family and friends. He grew up in Pitt County and attended the area schools. After School, Willis relocated to Connecticut where he worked at Consolidated Diesel, from which he retired. After retirement in Connecticut, Willis moved back to North Carolina and settled in Fayetteville. In Fayetteville he worked on Fort Bragg Army Base as a welder.

Willis met and married Arline Whitfield and from this union two children were born, Charline and Earl Whitfield.

Lil Bud was the baby of his family and the last survivor of his siblings. Along with his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Bryant Whitfield, Jr., and sisters, Emma Mae Atkinson, Clara Bell Speight and Maude Watson.

Left to cherish his memories are his children, Charline and Earl Whitfield; two children he raised as his own, Thaon and William McBride; grandchildren, Monique (Vincent) Arjune, Ebony Whitfield and Monica Winfield; and a host of step-children, step-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

“ Cousin Charlene, the family celebrate your strength during these trying times; you've been a rock, a true Whitfield. I know that my grandparents Bryant and Addie Mae Whitfield and his sisters, Emma Mae (my mother), Clara Belle, Maude Eva and brother Bryant jr is welcoming the youngest of the family home. whom they lovingly called Little Bud. I know those loving arms with a host of other relatives and friends are embracing him in his new experience.

He was like a big brother to me as we were close in age, he was my role model and I am a better man for it.

Rest in peace my uncle. "you fought the good fight, you ran the race, you kept the faith.

Cousin Charlene, we are with you.
