

Willnette LaVerne Williams

September 21, 1950 - January 18, 2015

Willnette LaVerne Hill Williams departed this life on January 18, 2015. She entered this life on September 21, 1950, born to William, Sr. and Gladys Hill.

Willnette accepted Christ at an early age and joined St. Paul's Baptist Church, then located in Newtown. She later became a member of Trinity Baptist Church. Willnette was educated in the Richmond Public Schools and attended a business school. She held several jobs during her teenage and young adult life, but was a dedicated employee of the Department of Motor Vehicles for more than 30 years before her retirement.

Willnette was called "Chip" by most of her family, friends and acquaintances, and she loved it. She was a die heart Dallas Cowboy fan, loved people, loved life, lived it to the fullest and she believed that everyone else should too. In her teen years, Willnette inspired her young friends to form a savings club that became the Antwanettes Social Club, which thrived for more than 20 years and of which she was the business manager during its duration. The first Newtown Reunion picnic was the brainchild of Willnette. She was not afraid of failure; she was a go-getter.

Willnette "Chip" Williams was loved by many and will be missed by all.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William, Sr. and Gladys Hill, Sister, Shirley Hill and her maternal and paternal grandparents. She leaves to cherish her fond memories, a loving daughter,, Charnetta Hill; a devoted son, Arthur Williams, Jr. granddaughter, Markesia Hill; sister, Doreen Hill; brother, William Hill, Jr. (Jacqueline); a beloved great-grand son, Zy` Aire Hill; three aunts, devoted, Doreatha Spearman; three uncles; nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.
