

Wilma J. Harcum

June 27, 1942 - November 5, 2003

Wilma Jean Harcom, daughter of the late Willie and Geneva McCrae, was born on June 27, 1942 in Cheraw, South Carolina. She departed this life on November 5, 2003 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Baltimore City Public Schools and worked for the Baltimore Orioles for many many years. She was baptized on June 17, 1995 and became a devoted Jehovah's Witness. She was a devoted mother to her six children as well as being a mother to everyone else's children. She was one you could depend on when needed. She loved life, shopping and just plain being the boss. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Irwin and Carl Johnson; four daughters, Jean Turner, Carlene Williams, Harreia Smith and Harrileshia Marine; one daughter-in-law, Monique Johnson; three sons-in-law, Cedric Turner, John Williams and Gerald Smith; one sister, Ramona; two brothers, Richard and John; twenty grandchildren, one special granddaughter, Jean "Teia" Langley; seven great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and devoted friends. Mommy, I think about how strong and loving you were. And how strong you've made me; I thank Jehovah for you. We'll love you forever. From Jeaneen and Nick Momma, We love you now, forever and always. From Harreia and Family

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To Friends and Family, I did not know Sister Harcum personally, however she was my sister in faith. Please accept my condolences for her passing (even though it's been almost a year) and may the scriptures comfort you in your time of grief. Remember, pray incessantly and Jehovah will surely give you the strength beyond what is normal to cope with your loss. “ My condolences to the family. Please take comfort in Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" She has the hope of being recovered from Sheol (the grave) and can awaken in God's New World.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to you, my family. Life can seem unfair at times, but remember that God is still on the throne and nothing by no means happens for no reason. Remember that I love you all and I am here for you whenever you need me. May God's peace be upon you.###imported-begin###Monique Johnson###imported-end###
