

Wilma O. Bryan

September 20, 1939 - March 11, 2009

Wilma Ozell Bryan, daughter of the late James and Virginia Wyche, was born September 20, 1939 in Greensville, Virginia. She departed this life on March 11, 2009 at Future Care / Old Court. Wilma Attended Douglass High School in Baltimore City. She later earned a degree in cosmetology. She worked for several government agencies in Baltimore and Washington, D.C. In 1992, Wilma dedicated her life to Jesus Christ. She had recently joined Ebenezer Outreach Ministries. Wilma was a humanitarian and Good Samaritan. She enjoyed helping people in need, especially children. It didn't matter if she knew them or not. Wilma and Samuel were joined in holy matrimony in 1960. This union was blessed with two children. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Samuel Bryan; son, Sultan Nidal (a.k.a. Samuel Nelson Bryan); daughter, Angela Susan Bryan; sister, Geraldine Wyche; two brothers, James Edward Wyche and Milton Wyche; three grandchildren, Rashid Bryan, Angelica Zadinawa Wyche and Annunkha Ozell Nidal; a host of other relations and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Wilma O. Bryan

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. In the Bible, Revelation chapter 21: 4 states; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope this scripture give you much comfort. Sincerely, C. Bain

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, Isaiah 25:8 reveals: "He (God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM