

Wilnet Jones Wallace

April 6, 1941 - January 12, 2017

Wilnet Jones Wallace, 75, was born on April 6, 1941, but at Bon Secours Community Hospice

House on Thursday morning the 12th of January of 2017, while faithful in her suffering and when no hand could give her ease, Wilnet was called to her eternal resting place.

God, the helper of the helpless, saw the pain and gave Wilnet peace with her children, Rosalind Yvette (Eugene Jr.) Rustin, Beatrice Wallace, Dianett Wallace, an Eugene (Joyce) Wallace, Jr; siblings, Mary (Kenneth) Bettis, Bessie (Roy III) Shelton, William Jones, and Elmer Jones; and a few nieces, Debbie Shelton Edwards, Kimberly Bettis, Deborah Bettis, Marsheta Wright, and Cheryl Hall Capehart at her side.

Wilnet was predeceased by her parents, William and Lenora Jones; siblings, Judge (Jack) Smith, Leberta Anderson, Virginia Hall and Douglas Jones; and grandson, Antonio Wallace.

Along with those at her bedside, Wilnet is survived by an estranged husband, Eugene Wallace, Sr; grandsons, Milton Taylor, Bryan Wallace, Harold (Trey) Wallace, and Shaun Rustin; great grandchildren, Aniya and Ariyanna Hare, Tayshaun and Kayloni Wallace, and Tianna Carpenter; in-laws, Woodford (Barbara) Wallace, Jr, James (Shirley) Wallace, Ann (Elwood) Pryor, Sheila Wallace, and Joyce Carter; other relatives, friends, and amazing neighbors, Doris Williams and Kathy Pratt.

Wilnet was a watch care member of Mount Zion Baptist Church, 1959 graduate of John M. Gandy High School, former bus driver for Hanover County Public School System, and former sales associate for several retail stores including Family Dollar. Wilnet loved her privacy and working in her beautiful flowerbeds.
