

Wilson Alexander Coleman

November 8, 1939 - October 9, 2010

God called Wilson “Pogie” Coleman home on October 9, 2010. He was born November 8, 1939, to the late Catherine Brooks and Woodrow Wilson Coleman in King William County, VA. After the sudden death of his father, the family moved to Richmond, VA where he was reared by his step-father, the late Warner “Bro” Johnson. He was preceded in death by his sister, Maggie Artis and son, Dwayne “Chubby” Moss (Wright).

Wilson, “Pogie” as we knew him, was educated in King William County and the Richmond Public Schools system. As a young man, he enjoyed the company of friends and family in Church Hill and Northside Richmond. As a father and husband, he enjoyed taking his family on many family vacations. Fishing, watching nature, raising dogs, and watching his westerns were also favorite activities.

Pogie was baptized in King William County in the Pawmunkey River. He received spiritual guidance while being a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church officiated by the Rev. Bryan J. Stevens. Pogie later joined Faith Landmark Ministries under the leadership of Pastors Randy and Cherie Gilbert.

His love of 32 years, Jean E. Coleman was by his side until his passing. For thirty-three years of his life he was a dedicated employee of Gill Oil which eventually became a part of the Woodfin Heating and Air establishment. For twenty-two years Pogie resided at 107 Winber Drive, where he was a classic example of a good neighbor. In 2000, he moved the family to Powhatan, Virginia, where he spent the last ten years of life enjoying the countryside nature setting that he so loved.

Left to cherish his memory is his very loving and devoted wife Jean; four devoted daughters, Shontel Abdulrazaaq (Ahmed), Andrea Coleman, Sheila T. Zimmerman and Natasha Coleman; three loving sons, Alvin Coleman (Lorraine), Lilton "Stoney" Tanner, Jr. (Mary), and Wayne "JoJo" Hicks; sixteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, one caring sister, Margaret Banks and several grateful nieces and nephews, along with a host of other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

“ POOGIE, you will be sorely missed! Thank you for being my Dad when my biological wasn't there. I will never forget when you came into our lives when I was 8. I remember my high school days when you would call from downstairs and woke me up to the smell of fresh coffee on weekdays, and Magic Shave on Sundays. Thank you for being there during life's celebrations & difficult times as well. Thank you for being Pa Pa & Grandpa to Vell & Ty (..& taking them to Disney World). You introduced me to the freedom of the road and gave me the courage to travel. I will carry you with me (in my heart) ALWAYS...I LOVE YOU.
