

Wilson Q. Lymon

November 6, 1946 - December 24, 2004

On Friday, December 24, 2004, peacefully and quietly, Wilson Quinn Lymon Sr. departed this world. Quinn, an only child, was born on November 6, 1946 in Hampshire, TN to the late Wilson Lymon and Alberta Lymon-Teagle. Quinn and his parents moved to Baltimore MD where he attended Baltimore City College High School and graduated in 1964. After graduation he voluntarily joined the United States Marine Corps, where he served one tour of duty in the Vietnam Conflict. After receiving an Honorable Discharge, he obtained an Associate of Arts degree. He later married his childhood neighbor and sweetheart Carolyn Jean Coppage, and from that thirty-five year marriage two sons were born. Quinn served as a Baltimore City Public School Police Officer for thirty years where he retired and was presently serving as an officer for the State of Maryland in Annapolis. Quinn, an avid firearm specialist, was also a Maryland State Certified Firearms Instructor where he has certified numerous officers over the years. Wherever he worked, socialized or traveled Quinn made many friends, and his family-oriented values and his loyalty will be sincerely missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Carolyn Jean Lymon; two sons, Wilson Q. Lymon Jr. and Hari T. Lymon; daughter-in-law, Marie Lymon; three grandsons, K'aree Quinn Lymon, Kylon Quinn Lymon, and Kaden Quinn Lymon; three extended sons, Jonathan Brickus, William Harris, and Osiris Lofton; aunt, Annie C. Turner of TN; step-father, Randolph Teagle; three step-brothers, three step-sisters, and a host of other relatives and friends, including a special family friend, Joanne Williamson of TN.

“ It has been 21 years marks today and I thought the pain of missing you would have faded but today it all feels like its rushing back. Thinking about yesterday being your 79th birthday this year. I called Mama but she didn't answer she may call me back later today maybe heavy for her today. I usually acknowledge your birthday and the time that has passed although reading over the old post Hari wrote on how everyone was doing made me so emotional because things have changed so much..I will share what I know but everyone else will come share with you in time.

I graduated city college in your footsteps lol 2k17, college wasn't for me but I didn't stop learning and traveling. I traveled to London, Costa Rica, Rome and more all on the strength exploring my artist career and taking risk. I opened my own Design studio called Tsalagi Textiles Studio offering accessible sewing education that is rooted in Indigenous tradition while appealing to a wide age range of learners who value creativity and cultural depth. I also won The Sankofa Award of Carlton J Smith Icon Awards Blaq Bmore Pride. I am still creating new ways to expand more projects and I will be doing a piece inspired by you called Lone Wolf.

You taught me whether I am with the pack or alone that strength, wisdom and vision to move forward will always be the key. I can go on about what I've been up to and how life is. I finally came to share part of my story TSALAGI tribe Lymon adjacent inside is my inside joke now. I really miss you and I feel you protecting me, all of us and the connection never fades, it never dies. Its in the stillness I remember how you carried us,loved us and no matter what showed up for us. I rarely feel that kind of protection these days, they don't make them like you any more. I will always remember POP POP

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Quinn when we served in the Army Reserve. He was one of the best soldiers I have ever known. He was well liked and respected by everyone in the unit, officers as well as enlisted. I can't think about the unit without thinking of him. May God bless you.##imported-begin##Charles Bothe##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ It's been almost a year and I can't believe you've been gone so long. It just seem like yesterday that we were planning christmas dinner. Well your birthady will be soon and I hear your not comming. Well i guess you have something more important to do, because after all you wouldn't want to miss the big shabang. I know i haven't been to visit but i'm not quite ready. But i just talk to you for about an hour and your son hearded me laughing in my sleep at you. He really misses you but like you said your waiting for us to show up. Not to soon I hope. It's hard not seeing you but I know you were tired so rest and keep that big smile and loud laugh going until one of us see you first. We love and truly miss you sometimes it seems like it's not real but when i see you know who behind the wheel i have to laugh to myself and say well this day is real. Until the next time keep visiting me i never get tired of laughing.##imported-begin##babygirl##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hey Dad!! Well it's been 3 years since you left to watch over us and it hasn't been until now that I could bring myself to write you this message. I do make sure to come and visit you down in Crowsville, but I have to admit that it has been very very very hard on me to not have you here. Since you have been gone, you I had a baby girl named Kayla Elizabeth Lymon. Dad, when I say this little girl has me wrapped around her finger...she has me!! Trust me, she would have "Pop-Pop" the same way! She is so adorable, but I know you already know that since you now see all and watch over all of us. Kaden is growing up so fast and that little boy is going to be very very very smart and maybe president! He is now loving life because he is now potty trained and loves to be a big boy and pee in the pot!! Kylon misses you and is always repeating something you told him or something he learned from you!! He is sharp as a tack and misses you so much! Every time we are out and having a good time or when the family gathers you always says, "I wish Pop-Pop was here!!". K'aree is doing really well also! He finally got his school stuff together and tried wrestling out and let me tell you, he is a joy to watch. He wrestled this little girl and he had the little girl beat and in the last period during the last minute he got caught in a headlock and she pinned him!! Pappy, Brickus, Ma and me were so proud of K'aree!! He listened to everything we said, but that little girl was too strong!! Well that is the update on your grandkids. I will chat with you soon and I love you so much Hoss!! Hari###imported-begin##Hari###imported-end##
