

Winde H. Lawrence, Sr.

October 14, 1933 - January 8, 2021

John 14:1

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me.

Winde H. Lawrence, Sr., also known to many as “Wildman” was born to the late Jeter Lawrence Sr. and Laura Coleman Lawrence in Richmond, Virginia on October 14, 1933. He is predeceased by siblings, Betty, Jeter, Carrie, Willie and Golden.

Winde enlisted into the United States Air Force and served his country proud for four years. Upon release, he received an honorable discharge.

Wildman was a dedicated family man who relished providing for his family making sure they wanted for nothing. Taking care of family and seeing them happy brought him joy and was his number one priority. Wildman was an amazing devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and caring friend. He lived life to the fullest. Having a beautiful soul was more important to Wildman than worldly goods. He was in tune with the universe and had compassion for the world around him.

On Friday, January 8, 2021, an angel whispered to Winde and said, it's time to come home. He gained his wings at the seasoned age of 87 . He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Marilyn E. Lawrence; sons, Winde H. Lawrence Jr. (Dee), Justin Lawrence Fjeldstad (Kristin); daughters, Rhonda Frazier (Donald), Laurie Sinclair (Scott), Stacey Jackson (Carlton), Cheryl Stillwell, Sheila Winbush Washington (Clarence) and Lorna Luna Rankin; grandchildren, Leonora, Winde, Tristen, Sydney, Kaydence, Lincoln, Ivory, Lanae, Scott, Terrance, Anastacia, Jalan, Aaron, Sheryce, Alicia, Anthony, and Andre; sisters, Ellen Rice and Laura Lawrence; great-grandchildren, great great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.
