

Winfield Norcross Jackson

September 10, 1950 - May 1, 2004

Winfield Norcross Jackson III, son of the late Winfield N. Jackson Jr. and the late Doris M. B. Jackson, was born on September 10, 1950. He departed this life to go home to be with his Heavenly Father on Saturday, May 1, 2004 at 4:00 P.M. Jackie a.k.a. Winn, as his family and friends affectionately called him, received his formal education in the Howard County School system and his early religious nurturing at Paynes A.M.E. Memorial Church. Later in his life he was a member of Jones Tabernacle Baptist Church. Later he became a member of Macedonia Baptist Church under Watch Care. Winfield was employed with Maryland General Hospital, as a Computer Systems Analyst until he became too ill to work. Winfield was in tune with his authentic self. He loved unconditionally and valued someone else's happiness more than his own. Winfield was a spiritual man who loved the Lord. He had a beautiful, powerful tenor voice and he loved to sing praises to the Lord. Through the years, Winfield belonged to several gospel groups: the Young Adult Choir of Paynes A.M.E. (Jessup), the Silverneers of Paynes A.M.E., the Maryland Suburban Mass Choir, the A.E. Jones Singers, the Extensions of Faith, Hines and Hall, Deliverance, the Mass Choir of Macedonia Baptist Church, Jones Tabernacle, and the Men's Chorus of Macedonia. Winfield's quality of life was spent making people happy. He leaves to cherish his memory, one brother, Wayne N. Jackson; three aunts, Mary L. Brooks, Bertha Harris, Nancy Lee Green; two uncles, Henry and Bernard Allen; devoted cousins, Ellen, Winnie, Beverly, Roslin and Monica; dear friends, Pat Paul, Garfield and Shay Morris, Donald Milburn, Michelle Langston, Marvin Morgan Sr., Rick Palabon and Mike Mahoney; a host of God-children, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Winfield Jackson, My condolence goes out to you on the passing of your loved one. Almighty God did not make us to die and his purpose will be fulfilled in the near future. In the mean time he has given us his Word and in his Word there are promises such as the ones found at Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. It can be hard to cope with the death of a love one. However, may you find comfort from "... the Father of tender mercies, ... who comforts us in all our tribulations." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. I truly hope you continue to find solace from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ Words can not make sorrow any easier to bear, but they can show how deeply others sympathize and care. Our thoughts are there with our family in sympathy today. We are thinking of Jackie warmly and in prayer, and ask God to bless our family with courage to bear the sorrow that now fills our hearts.##imported-begin##Charles Palmer and Family##imported-end##

“ Ms. Louise, Our heartfelt sympathy and prayers are with you and your family. Winfield was a very friendly person and touch the hearts of many. He often cheered up everyone in our waiting room with his gentle humor. It was our honor to serve him and take care of his eyes. He will be greatly missed. God Bless You, Dr. Duane Bryant, Terry & Staff.##imported-begin##Terry Potillo Jones##imported-end##
