

Winfred Woodrow Steward

August 14, 1992 - March 2, 2018

Winfred Woodrow Steward, 25, of Northside Richmond took God's outstretched hand and walked through the pearly gates of heaven on Friday, March 2, 2018. He was born in Richmond, Virginia on August 14, 1992 to Darlean Steward and Winfred Rawls. He was preceded in death by his uncle, Woodrow Shepherdson.

He was educated in the local public school system and graduated from John Marshall High School in 2012. He was baptized at Metropolitan African American Baptist Church at a young age.

He was formerly employed by Friendlys on Brook Road as a cook. He was affectionately known as "Winky" by his family and friends. In his leisure, he enjoyed hanging out with his friends. He loved to listen to music and watching sports. While living with his mother, he made sure that he did his part with housekeeping chores. Winfred brought joy to everyone who graced his presence. He had a tremendously warm heart and to know him was truly to love him.

The gifts of love he left behind will always be treasured. He leaves to cherish his memory daughter, Ta'Zyia Brown; loving parents, Darlean Steward and Winfred Rawls; sister, Samantha Steward; step-father, Edward Dickerson; maternal grandmother, Hattie Southerland; paternal grandmother, Captoria

Rawls; three caring nieces, Trevniya White, Oshajanae Green and Envi Green; a host of other relatives and caring friends.

To My Family

God said it was time for me to leave you,

I didn't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.

In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,

Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

I'll Always Love You!

Winky
