

Winslow Lee Thomas

February 21, 1939 - October 3, 2004

Winslow Lee Thomas, son of the late Wilber Lee Sims and Elizabeth Thomas, was born on February 21, 1939 in Baltimore, Md. He was called from this earthly life to reward on Sunday, October 3, 2004. "Reese," as he is affectionately called, was raised by the late Pop Thomas and his Aunt Ethel Whitlock of Baltimore. As an only child, he had plenty of "Sisters and Brothers" that loved him and took care of him as a blood relative. Reese attended the public schools in Baltimore. He didn't complete high school because he left for the need to work at the age of thirteen. He had worked diligently at Woodcrest Country Club, Gulf Gas Station, Papa John Pizza and Baltimore Cab Company. On August 7, 1965, Reese married Beverly Venable of Baltimore, Md. From this union was born six children, Anthony Venable, Winslow, Kenneth, Doris, Robert, and youngest Jeannette. After 1973, Reese relocated to Camden, NJ where he worked and continued to raise his children, it was there in Camden that he met a special friend, Mae Lovett and helped her to raise her children and worked hard to make ends meet. He then joined Shalom Baptist Church in Camden, NJ. Reese was known to help everybody; he was known to give lodging to anybody who had the need. He loved detailing cars and was mechanically inclined. He was also a soul food lover. Reese moved back to his beloved hometown Baltimore and later joined the Pleasant Zion Baptist Church where the Rev. Dr. James Gray, Jr. served as Pastor. Reese faithfully served as an usher and was a very dependable driver of the church van. On the day that the Lord called Brother Reese to his final reward he had just dropped off some of the Saints, while in pain, and then drove himself to the hospital where hours later he passed away. Reese leaves to cherish his memory: his sons, Anthony, Winslow, Kenneth, Robert, James and sons from previous relationships; his daughters, Shirley, Norrine, Doris, Tonya, Sophia, Deborah and Jeannette; one son-in-law, Jeffrey Ferren of Camden, NJ; ten grandsons, Kenneth Jr., Sean, Rayshon, Jamere, Charlie, Kayshon, Michael, Joe-Joe, Lil' Rob and Aaron; eight granddaughters, Jada, Ja'Ondra, Toya, Laquanna, Heniya, Shawnae, Chelsea and Charrish; two sisters, Betty Washington and Sadie Folks; two aunts, Doretha Thomas and Frances Thomas; three uncles, Robert, Harvey, and Macon; two special friends, Mae Lovett and Pat Allen both of Camden, NJ; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
