“ Don't worry Winston it's not over you work liveso on brother David

David - February 19, 2016 at 09:08 PM

“ I worked with Winston in the late '80s early '90s. He was such a pleasant person and excellence co-worker. Your memories of him will give you comfort in the coming days. I share your loss and you have my deepest sympathy.

Cozette Davis - October 13, 2015 at 08:10 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for your lost. Having experienced the loss of a loved one, I can only imagine the host of emotions that you must be going through. I found strength in meditating on the promises found at Isa. 33:24 regarding a time when no resident will say that they are sick as well as the time when death will no longer be (Rev. 21:3,4). I pray that the fond memories will provide you with a sense of comfort during your time of sorrow.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. When someone we love dies, the heartache and grief can be great. I hope that you can be comforted knowing that God cares for you and sees your pain. (1 Peter 5:7) "He is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18) May you find comfort and relief during this grievous time, as you cherish the precious memories of Winston.
