

Winston Callahan Mitchell

May 26, 1972 - July 13, 2010

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord

(2 Corinthians 5:8)

A bundle of joy was delivered to Howard Callahan and Mary Crute Mitchell, on May 26, 1972, named Winston Callahan Mitchell. He was affectionately known as "Dallas."

Winston was a world traveler from birth. He was born in Orange, New Jersey. He started school in Greeleyville, South Carolina and completed second through tenth grades in Durham, North Carolina. Winston graduated from Marcus High School in Flowermound, Texas. He graduated from Virginia State University, Petersburg, Virginia in 1996, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting. Winston settled in Richmond, Virginia. He worked for the City of Richmond in several capacities.

Beginning at birth, Winston's father had him sighted in a camera lens. Winston loved to be behind a camera; however, he was always willing to strike a pose in front of it. Winston's passion for photography led him to become an entrepreneur by establishing DTP, LLC - Dallas the Photographer Studios. His favorite quote was: "Taking pictures is like capturing life's moments"

On July 13,2010,Winston was delivered to God on the wings of an angel to his eternal rest. He leaves to celebrate his memories,his son Xavier Slayton;parents Howard Callahan and Mary Crute Mitchell;sister Trina Renee Mitchell;Xavier's mother Shonitra Slayton;grandmother Flessier Mitchell;uncle,Cary L. Mitchell(deceased),Willie L. Crute,Sr. (deceased);aunts;Mildred M. Crute(deceased),Lorraine Crute Washington,Tonella Frierson and Mary H. Talley;cousins,Marlene Crute Johnson,Willie L. “ I wish to express sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Mitchell. Death of a loved one can cause grief and heartache, may you find comfort in God's inspired word the bible that one day soon by means of His kingdom He will remove death forever. The comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 gives us this reassurance here it says "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."

“ Winston,

I am so deeply hurt by your passing. I just wish I had more time to enjoy a laugh or 2 with you. Known you since I was a 17yr old freshman at VSU. I always remember your truck with the Texas plates. I was able to see you in passing all the time in Richmond and always had fun talking to you bro. I am going to miss you and May God have his covering and Grace over your family in this difficult time. May your soul forever rejoice in the Lord. Peace "Dallas".

Your friend forever Jamal K. Boles.
