“ When I keyed your name & saw your picture my first thought was my brother is a handsome man. I know mom smiled & opened her arms when she saw you. I still find it hard to believe that you didnt saw God I can't go today Joyce is bringing me my Thanksgiving dinner. In case you did my brother, I know God had a better dinner for you. You are truly missed and yes I will always remember what you would often tell me Joyce LJ will be alright. I know you are watching over him and already know he's doing just that "Alright". RIP Bro .. Love your sister Joyce

“ The prayers and thoughts of the Hathaway family are with the family of our friend, Woodford Wallace, Jr. I've known Woodford for over 50 years, and he was always the same: a perfect gentleman, impeccably dressed, a winning smile, and a genuine interest in what you were doing. Rest in His Presence.

Barbara, L'Tanya and family: We are so very saddened by Woodford's passing. He was loved by our entire family, especially by my parents who thought of him as "their son". He always had a loving smile and something positive to say. We will miss him terribly. I am praying for my cousin, Barbara, L'Tanya, grandchildren and the Wallace family that their sorrow will be lessened by the joy of their memories with him.
