

Woodrow W. Adams

February 13, 1927 - October 7, 2007

WOODROW WALDEN ADAMS, son of the late William Henry and Emma Line Adams, was born on February 13, 1927 in Thelma, North Carolina. He was the middle child of five brothers. He attended the public schools of North Carolina and later moved to Baltimore with his brothers. Woodrow followed his passion for cooking and became a chef. He worked at the Baltimore Country Club for years until he retired. He met Katherine Jordon, his true love, and married her April 12, 1971. He was a devoted husband until her death in 1999. Woodrow loved to drink coffee and read the newspaper "all the way thru." He loved the racetrack and to joke and laugh. He made people feel good which is why he is so missed! He had three brothers who preceded him in death, Willie Lee, Melvin and Alphonso. Woodrow leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, Herman Adams, Sr; two sisters-in-law, Queenie and Gloria; a host of other family members, friends and neighbors who loved him.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family. I did not know Mr. Adams, but I want to share some comforting words from Jehovah God found in the Bible at Rev. 21:4 which says, "(Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." What a wonderful promise! This promise has brought comfort to millions. I hope you will find the same comfort.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ They say that time is a great healer of all pain and sorrow. I hope that the time that has passed is helping you to heal. The memories that you have of Mr. Adams, is a great healing aid, let them help you, memories are one of Jehovah God's gift to us and in time the memories will come without the pain, and you will be able to focus not on your loss, but on all the years of love, joys and blessings that you shared with Mr. Adams. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ I KNOW IT IS VERY DIFFICULT TO SEE SOME PASS, ESPECIALLY BECAUSE DEATH COMES IN THE FORM OF A THIEF(NOT ANNOUNCING WHEN ITS GONNA COME. THAT MAKES IT EVEN MORE DIFFICULT BECAUSE YOU DONT HAVE A CHANCE TO SAY GOODBYE, YOU DONT KNOW WHEN'S THE LAST TIME YOU'LL SEE THEM,HUG THEM,OR EVEN TALK TO THEM.SO BECAUSE OF THIS I'M SENDING YOU ENCOURAGING WORDS.God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.###imported-begin###sorry2 hear###imported-end###

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Adam's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death our "enemy". But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:3,4. Then "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." I hope that you will gain comfort from your study of God's Word, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss of Woodrow. I'm sure his passing was hurtful for your family. I'd like to offer scriptural encouragement for your family. Rev:21:4,5 "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor pain be anymore The former things have passed away.' And the One seated on the throne said: 'Look! I am making all things new'. Also,he says: 'Write, because these words are faithful and true.'###imported-begin##nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The Bible gives us comfort in such times of distress. At John 5:28,29 it talks about a resurrection for those in the memorisl tombs. It is a wonderful hope and I hope this will make the comming days comforting for you and your loved ones.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill, Jr.##imported-end##
