

Wyatt Franklin Beverly

June 28, 1934 - February 7, 2002

Wyatt Beverly, son of the late William and Mary Beverly was born on June 28, 1934 in King and Queen County, Virginia. He departed this life on February 7, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He was the seventeenth child of eighteen children. He received Christ as his Savior at an early age and was baptized at First Mount Olive Baptist Church in King and Queen County, Virginia. He was educated at Lawson Training School in King and Queen County. As a young man, he joined the Army where he spent four years, after which he moved to Baltimore, Md., where he met and married the late Shirley Bell. Later, he met Nancy Mebane, and from this union two girls were born. Wyatt was a sport enthusiast. He especially enjoyed football and boxing. Wyatt and his friends would gather for hours to debate the outcome. Wyatt leaves to cherish his memory: his three daughters, Wanda and Sonya Beverly of Baltimore, Md. And Kimberly Watson of San Diego, Calif.; stepson, Michael Mebane of Baltimore, Md.; sisters, Daisy Beverly and Elizabeth Beverly Lee (Joe) of Philadelphia, Pa.; brothers, John Beverly (Lorraine) of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and Lenwood Beverly (Dorothy) of Cambridge, Md.; nine grandchildren, Shawnda Jenkins, Darryl Wallace, Donielle Wallace, Donte Beverly, Denae Beverly, Davon Diggs, Mikal Diggs, Kamara Mebane and Shaniqua Mebane; a special and devoted niece, Gayle Beverly Maultsby (Maurice); lifelong friend, Mr. Johnnie Lott; a loving companion, Nancy Mebane; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. In the midst of life there is death: Mingled with joy and sadness, The sorrow brought to our family Cast a shadow over us, That only Jesus, the light of the world, Can remove.
