

Wyoming Douglas Burns

August 6, 1929 - July 19, 2004

Wyoming D. Burns, son of the late Hubert and Alberta Burns, was born in Allegany County, Virginia and was called from labor to reward after a lengthy illness on Monday, July 19, 2004. Wyoming received his education at Douglass High School and then joined the United States Army where he did his tour of duty and also served in the Army Reserves until receiving an honorable discharge in February 1957. Upon his discharge Enterprise Paper Company from 1957 employed him until his retirement in 1994. Wyoming married Bernice E. Jackson in 1964 and out of this union, two children were born, Darryl and Michael Burns. A faithful husband and father, he never saw himself as a stepfather but the father of Barbara, Carrie and Jessie Jackson. In the family he was known as a “wonderful man”, a man that took care of his family. He was truly the epitome of a friend, husband, father and grandfather.

“ Dear family, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your beloved one. Death is such an enemy that steals our loved ones from us. However, Almighty God says at 1 CORINTHIANS 15:26 that he is going to do away with that enemy. He also says that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). Please find comfort from these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
