“ To Xavier's Family:

Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. As a member of the Customs community, I've had the pleasure of working with Xavier for at least 25 - 30 years. I have never met a kinder soul than X. No matter the task, he did his very best, and always with a kindness and gentleness rarely found in this, sometimes very difficult, world. God's light definitely shined through him and I'm saddened to know that his light will shine no more on this earth. I rejoice in the knowledge, though, that his light now shines brighter than the sun in God's kingdom. Peace and rest, my friend, you've earned both. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I've known Xavier for most of life. I remember him being a Alter Boy and later in life as an Usher. He would speak and shake my hand. He was a fixture at St Edward's. He inspired me to become an Alter Boy . Rest in peace my friend!!!

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family in your loss. Xavier was a good hearted person and always helpful. Will miss his knowledge for sports and listening to him count down to the spring when the Orioles pay ball. He will be missed.

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing."

*To the family of Xavier Boone: There was no one with a kinder spirit and selfless behavior. Xavier had a heart for God. He would do anything to help anyone and to give happiness. He was so loved by so many. He was a gentlemen and no matter what he was going through or how much something troubled him he kept his demeanor and he stood his ground. He loved his job and he loved people. He will be missed. His loyalty and caring personality made you love him. His perseverance made you admire him and his personality made you accept him. May God Bless you all and may you, Octavia and Kenya, be comforted knowing that God has given peace and happiness to Xavier. He is enjoying the rewards of a good and faithful servant. Good bye my friend. Bethia

*To the family of Xavier Boone,
He was truly a great friend and will be missed. Xavier was one of a kind. He never forgot my birthday and always remembered to send me a Christmas card each year. We became good friends at Customs and reminded friends for life. His kindness was a virtue given to him by the Lord. The Lord wrapped His kindness around Xavier. Life is a garden, good friends are the flowers and times spent together life's happiest hours. Friendship, like flowers blooms even more fair when carefully tended by dear friends who care. He truly was that kind of a person. We will meet again some day in that beautiful city.
