“ Hello I want to give the family my deepest condolences and to also let you know that the last enemy death will be no more as found in God's word the Bible in Rev 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
I hope that this gives you comfort

“ We are sorry for your loss. May the scripture at Isa.26:19 bring comfort to the family. It provides hope of a resurrection...."and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life. We hope you can lean on God's promises now and into the future

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. Death as the Bible describes it is an enemy that Almighty God promises he will do away with soon. Rev. 21:3,4 is a very comforting scripture.

“ I met Yasheka when she was 13. I named her "Yoshi" because she was always so hyper and ate a lot. Plus I couldn't remember how to pronounce her name. 😂 We were both in Rosey Greer group home and both set on a mission to get money. I already miss the daily texts, hearing that annoying ringtone of "Oouu" letting me know you were checking in. I miss the sleepovers where you always feel asleep first. I miss feeding you, that smile, that voice that talked a hole in my head from one topic to the next. You were more than my foster sister, you were my sister and I'll never forget you. 🥺
