

Yulanda Evette Richardson

October 10, 1966 - April 1, 2020

Yulanda Richardson was born on October 10, 1966 to Barbara Richardson and Calvin Robertson in Richmond, Virginia.

She received her formal education in the Richmond Public School system and graduated from Huguenot High School.

She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and became a member of Cedar Street Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Robinson. Yulanda was always glad that it was Sunday, because she enjoyed the worship and fellowship with her church family. She was employed as a nurse and personal care attendant, taking care of people and treating them like family until her health began to fail.

In her leisure, Yulanda enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. She adored them and had a special love for each one individually. They were the joy in her heart and the continuation of her heartbeat.

Yulanda departed this life on Wednesday, April 1, 2020 to the pearly gates of heaven to join her son, MarQuis Richardson who preceded her in death.

A woman that was strong, bold, could hold her own and was into her “Black” culture. Yulanda’s smile was like a ray of sunshine that would lift our spirits.

Always sacrificing, optimistic, truly a class act with natural grace, beauty and sophistication of spirit and wisdom.

Yulanda leaves to cherish her loving memory: two caring sons, Jeffrey Richardson and William Richardson; two adored grandchildren, MarQuis and Jeffrey Richardson, Jr.; mother, Barbara Richardson; father, Calvin Robertson; six siblings, Walter Jones, Jessie Richardson, Marian Richardson, Alicia Richardson, Leon Richardson and Marvette Richardson, a host of other relatives and loving extended family, Brenda Crute, Sharon Smith and Lisa Cox.
