November 8, 1961 - May 22, 2006

INEZ YVETTE COLEY, born November 8, 1961 to the late Willie and Inez Davis Coley in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 22, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Inez, better known to family and friends as (Yvette), received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed throughout the Baltimore City area doing various jobs until she became ill. Yvette enjoyed life, her children, grandchildren and family gatherings. Yvette had five children, one who preceded her in death, Jessie Balis, and ten grandchildren, one who also preceded her in death, Malik Somage Hicks. She leaves to cherish fond memories: two sons, Thomas Peacher and Isaac Balis Jr.; two daughters, Tanya and Trina Peacher; three sisters, Willie Mae Coley, Diane Coley and Grace Coley Fowler, two brothers, James and Willie Coley Jr.; one lifetime friend and companion, Isaac Balis Sr., one brother-in-law, Tyrone Fowler, Sr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. "To everything there is a season and a time to ever purpose under the heaven".

“ Death touches us like nothing else does. The pain cuts so deeply. You truly have my sympathy. Many scriptures bring me comfort, when I lose a loved one. One I particularly appreciate is found at Rev 21:3,4 which says, "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say, "Look!, "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more. "Neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Can we believe that all sickness and death will be eliminated? Notice the next verse which says, "And the one seated on the throne said: "Look! "I am making all things new. "Also he says, "Write!, because these words are faithful and true." So we have these sure promises we can trust in, from a God who cannot lie. May it comfort you to know that all Jehovah"s words will come true. If we are obedient to his word, we will see our loved ones again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The bible has words of comfort. At 1Corinthians 15:26 it states,"As the last enemy death, is to be brought to nothing". God has promise to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May this scripture comfort the family during this time.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ DEAR FAMILY, COPING WITH THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE IS DIFFICULT. BUT WITH TRUST IN GOD'S WORD WE CAN ENDURE. NEVER WAS IT A PART OF GOD'S ORIGINAL PURPOSE FOR MAN TO DIE. IN FACT HE WANTS US TO LIVE FOREVER. (ECCLESIASTES 3:11) SOON THE EARTH WILL BE A GLOBAL PARADISE WHERE ALL CAN LIVE HEALTHY, HAPPY AND PEACEFUL LIVES FOREVER. (PSALM 37:11,29) HAVE CONFIDENCE IN ALL THAT GOD PROMISES.##imported-begin##MICHELLE##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Ms. Coley, My condolences for your loss. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 promises that our "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." The Bible teaches that death itself will be destroyed, no longer to separate our loved ones from us. Jesus Christ himself gave the promise of dead ones coming back to life on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Luke 23:43, Revelation 21:1-5) Please read those verses in your Bible and may you receive much comfort and hope as you think deeply on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Coley family, I am very sorry for the loss of your love one. But as a servant of Jehovah and having experienced the loss of a love one I can truly say that I feel your pain. What has given me strength throughout the years is the scripture at John 5:28, 29. Here we get the sure hope of seeing our love ones again. Please read that scripture and draw comfort from it.##imported-begin##Dorothy##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. During times of sorrow I have found much strength from the loving promises and reminders in the Bible. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 reminds us that the God of all comfort comforts us in all our tribulation and John 5:28,29 reminds us of the promised resurrection. May you find comfort in these reminders as well.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
