

Yvette Latta

November 25, 1961 - December 11, 2025

Yvette Khadija Latta, born in Baltimore City, was called to her eternal home on December 11th, 2025, at the age of 64. The daughter of Samuel Latta and Alene McAllister-Latta, Yvette was born in Provident Hospital as the baby of the bunch and brought all her siblings joy. Yvette graduated from Eastern High School and attended college at Coppin State. Her love for nursing led Yvette to spread her magic in dual careers as a Private Duty Nurse and Corrections Officer.

If you knew Yvette, you knew her light and warmth. She loved candy, good food, and long phone conversations that could stretch well into the night. She loved to dance, to laugh, and to help others whenever she could. Above all, she loved God, and her faith shaped the way she cared for everyone around her. She cherished her only child, Tyronn. Some of the best times of her life were when he served as her caregiver.

Remaining to cherish Yvette's memory are her son, Tyronn Latta; 7 great-grandchildren; sisters, Faye and Sidette Latta; brother, Samuel Latta III; a host of nieces and nephews, Fatimat Salako, Jeaneane and Eugene Colston, Tai, Kahlia, Rashid, Samantha, Sabrina, and Sebastian Latta; Maiya and Omar Peay, whom she lovingly cared for, and a host of great nieces and nephews--she loved her great nieces Sequoia Williams, Shardae, and Shanya Hyman dearly.

Preceding Yvette in death are her parents, Samuel and Alene; brother Bruce Latta, and grandson Torron Jackson. As we remember her life, may her love live on through us and continue to fill every room.

“ There are many memories that I have of my aunt Yvette. 2 of my favorites are, she would look my baby picture then look at me and say, (in her high pitched voice that you know..."Khalia Latta you was a beautiful baby!! I mean a beautiful baby. I don't know what happened to you now." Lol it would be so funny. Her nick name for me was duck butt. She would say, "you always had a duck butt, even through your paper." And then she would laugh, lol. I'm gonna miss you and your laugh. ❤️ I love you. Until we meet again. Tell my daddy and my grand daddy I said hey. 😊🕊️
