

Yvonne C. Alston

August 14, 1954 - November 4, 2008

Yvonne Carol Alston (Wilson), Wife of William M. Alston, daughter of Elijah Wilson and the late Elizabeth Wilson was born on August 14, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland, the third of five siblings. She departed this life on November 4, 2008 after a very lengthy illness. Carol, as she was affectionately known to her family and friends, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School system where she was an excellent student. She received her bachelors degree from Towson State University, and a Masters degree in religion from Xavier College. Carol began her employment saga working at Whitaker's Corner Grocery Store, Food A'ra ma Grocery food chain as a Manager, and The Monumental Life Insurance Company where she later resigned due to the beginning of her health issues. Carol began her spiritual journey at a very young age at Saint Ann's Catholic Church where she made her first communion and confirmation. Later, she attended Saint Francis Xavier Roman Catholic Church. Her spiritual growth there was gained through the many avenues in which she found herself such as: Sunday School Teacher, Eucharistic Minister, Legion of Mary, The Catholic Daughters of The Americas, and she was involved in many other activities there. Carol had a good repertoire with the Priest and Nuns in and outside her community. In 1987, Carol transitioned to kind Worship Center (formerly known as Bethel Holy Tabernacle) under the leadership of Bishop Ralph L. Dennis and Lady Deborah Dennis whom she loved dearly. It was under this leadership that she truly accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was later consecrated as a Minister. During her time at Kingdom she taught Christian Education and became a valuable strength to the youth. After leaving this ministry, she began The Maranatha Prayer Phone Ministry. This ministry reached across the country and has touched many lives with spiritual counsel, support and love. To the Glory of God, she has led many to accept Christ as their personal Savior. Carol also has a pen pal ministry writing to inmates in various Institutions. She has mentored many young people, including one who is now an author of Christian books. She had the uncanny knack of remembering everyone's birthday and important events in their lives and never missed an opportunity to acknowledge them. On May 2, 1997 she married Evangelist William McKinley Alston. Though there were no children born of this union, Carol has mothered many whom she embraced as her own. During the long battle with her failing health she remained faithful to God and always thanked Him for such a loving caring and faithful husband, who has been more than a champion during their life together. Yvonne has also been blessed to have her father as a father and friend through out her life. Her favorite saying will not be forgotten "I'm going to pray to on it, because God knows" Yvonne Carol Alston will be deeply missed among her family and many friends. She is affectionately known as our VOICE MAIL QUEEN! She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving and devoted husband, William M. Alston, her father Deacon Elijah Wilson two sister-Agnes (Gloria) Gross, Terri Elizabeth Brunson, two brothers, Christopher Elijah and Roderick (Kevin) Wilson, nieces and nephews two brother-in-laws, Samuel Alston and John Horton, two sister-in-laws Karolean Edison-Alston and Brenda Horton, two lifelong friends-Grace Ferguson and Valencia White, and host of other relatives and friends and a multitude of spiritual children.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family. I did not know Yvone, but I want to share some comforting words from Jehovah God found in the Bible at Rev. 21:4 which says: "(Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." What a wonderful promise! This promise has brought comfort to millions. I hope you will find the same comfort.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your recent loss of Yvonne. I'm sure how difficult this must be for the entire family. At such times, the bible can be a wonderful source of comfort, because it tells us of God's wonderful purpose to end all sickness and death forever, and to raise the dead back to life. Jesus gave this wonderful assurance of the resurrection found in the bible at Luke 20:37,38. Jesus was speaking to a crowd about Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Even though they had been dead for centuries, notice what he said about them. "But that the dead are raised up even Moses disclosed, when he calls Jehovah the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob. "He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him. Going up to verse 35 and 36 Jesus calls them "children of the resurrection", because even though they were dead at that time, they were alive to Jehovah and Jesus, because one day they will be raised back to life once again. One a wonderful and loving God Jehovah is, and we can count on him bringing our loved ones back to life again, because he never fails to fulfill his promises. Isaiah 55:11. I hope that you are comforted as you reflect on the many promises of God that are found in his word to strengthen you, and to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our enemy death will be destroyed. May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To be absent from the body...is to be present with the Lord! Heaven has gained a gift! My big sister, a true meaning of what it means to be a soldier in the army of the Lord! I am grateful for all that she has taught me and the blessing she has been to me and all of my children. May her legacy live on in all the spiritual children that she mentored while on this side. May we all be prepared as she was when we enter into our rest. To God be the Glory forever and ever.##imported-begin##Terry E. Brunson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
