

Yvonne Esther McDaniel

October 11, 1960 - January 5, 2010

Yvonne Esther McDaniel departed suddenly from Earth to Glory on January 5, 2010 at 9:28 a.m. at John Hopkins Hospital, the very same hospital at which she was born, on October 11, 1960. She attended the Baltimore Public Schools. She joined St. John C.C. Church at an early age and rededicated her life to Christ in September of 2009. She was a member of the fifty voice choir and has worked at various jobs. Her last employment was with H & S Bakery, where she was employed for over 10 years. She was a loving mother and grandmother. She loved children and would “take” your child under her wing as if they were her own. She would go to the extreme for her grandchildren. When they would ask her for donuts, the first thing the following morning she would travel from South Baltimore to East Baltimore via bus to get those donuts. Yvonne was fussy and would poke those lips out in a minute, but her loving spirit and friendship were genuine. Yvonne was a caring and giving person to the point that she donated her organs to help others. She leaves to mourn, her mother Maggie Lowery, father Richard Dean, husband Ed, children Marcus, Nakisha, and Nathaniel, grandchildren, Rashad, Daijah, Kyajah, Kyjae, and Emani, Sisters Elaine and Elma, Sister in law Lorraine, one niece “Woogie” Elanda, aunts, uncles, host of cousins and friends who love her very much.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
